

Walking to the London Centre

1. Turn right out of Conway Hall and head north down the ramp towards the river.
2. At the bottom of the ramp cross Upper Ground St., and continue in the same direction until you reach the river.
3. Take a left and head south-west along the Riverside Walk until you come to the next bridge (a railway bridge with pedestrian bridges either side).
4. Continue under the railway bridge, taking the steps on its far side up to the far pedestrian bridge. Cross the river. You should be able to see Big Ben on your left.
5. At the end of the bridge take the steps down and continue in the same direction up the tree-lined Northumberland Avenue.
6. At the top of Northumberland Avenue you'll come to a large traffic island at the south of Trafalgar Square. Use the pedestrian crossings to access the main square and make your way to the main steps leading to the National Gallery (the large domed building at the back of the square).
7. Once by the main steps, turn left and follow along the front of the gallery, past the Sainsbury Wing onto the street ahead (Pall Mall East).
8. The first street on your right is Whitcomb St. The second is Suffolk St. Turn into Suffolk St. and you'll find the London Centre is the first building on your right.

PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION OPTIONS:

Ordinarily you will find it much quicker (and much cheaper!) to walk to the London Centre, but in the event of bad weather you may prefer to take Public Transportation.

By Bus, take the 176 or the 139 from bus stop P (marked on the map), getting off at Trafalgar Square. From there follow walking directions 6-8. It will cost £2.20 (cash only) and you will need to buy a ticket from the machine at the bus stop.

By Tube, from Conway Hall head across the road to Waterloo Station (marked on the map). Follow signs downstairs to the Underground station and take the Bakerloo Line or the Northern Line to Charing Cross station. Once at Charing Cross (again see the map) make your way down the Strand to Trafalgar Square (it will be signed inside the station). From there follow walking directions 6-8. You will need to buy a ticket from a machine or kiosk inside the Underground station using cash or a bank card.
